Consent.

Your Support Coordinator has requested access to your account. You can give them access to just view your record, or to edit it as well. Editing will allow them to upload documents for you, approve invoices and add/change any information in the app. Would you like to grant (please tick one):

No access

View-only access

Editing access

You can also grant the authority for them to act on your behalf if the need arises, and receive correspondence from us regarding you (like the monthly statements). Acting on your behalf means that your Support Coordinator is able to call or email us to make changes or give us instructions for you, instead of having to do it yourself. Would you like to grant (please tick one):

No permission

Permission to receive emails from us about you
